

呉本 俊松 / Toshimatsu KUREMOTO

Toshimatsu KUREMOTO lives and works in Osaka.

Born in 1950 in Nagano (Japan).

Graduated at the Osaka University of Arts in 1973.

His works are in the public collection at Hyogo Prefectural Museum of Art, Kobe, Japan and National Museum of Modern and Contemporary Arts, Korea, Seoul, Korea.

HP: <http://t-kuremoto.com>

Introduction:

A small figure of white-collar worker is standing alone as if he is experiencing spell of loneliness. The posture of person gives somewhat humorous touch to this lonesome figure. The patchwork of galvanized steel sheet is particularly detailed and shows skill of the artist.

My favourite hour
Modeling paste, galvanized metal sheet,
steel etc, 103.5x37x31cm

See you again
Modeling paste, galvanized metal sheet, steel
etc, 34x20x25.5cm

A day off
Modeling paste, galvanized metal sheet,
steel etc, 50x12.5x6.5cm

The man who never gives up
Modeling paste, galvanized metal sheet, steel
etc, 30.5x7x7cm